RESPONSE TO AMENDMENT

1. This application filed on March 30, 2001 is directed to software and method for "A Filtering Web Proxy For Recording Web-Based Transactions That Supports Secure HTTP Steps."

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

2. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Kathy Chapman on 20 June 2005.

3. Claim 1 (Amended)

A software product implemented on a computer readable medium for a computer system to record a transaction for a user operating a web browser wherein the transaction is used for automated testing of an Internet server system, the software product comprising:

proxy instructions configured to direct a processor to receive a first request from the web browser, transfer the first request to the Internet, receive a response to the first request from the Internet, transfer the response to the web browser, receive a second request from the web browser, and transfer the second request to the Internet;

response instructions configured to direct the processor to search the response for a secure address and if the response includes the secure address then replace the secure address with a non-secure address and identifying characters;

request instructions configured to direct the processor to record the second request as a new page if the second request is for a new page and to replace the non-secure address and the identifying characters with the secure address if the second request is for the non-secure address and the identifying characters; and a storage medium configured to store the proxy instructions, the response instructions, and the request instructions.

4. Pursuant to 37 C.F.R. 1.109 and MPEP 1302.14, the following is an Examiner's Statement of Reasons for Allowance:

On page 7, the first paragraph of the reply to the office action of March 10, 2005, applicant sets forth the patentable novelty of this invention.

5. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
